Dated the 14th September, 2010.

Respected Dr. Sumit Sinha,

Nothing heartens me more than the news about saving of a life by a human being. For us, besides being a doctor, you are a human being. But, for Bhuvneshwar, you are God. I am falling short of words to express my gratitude to you for not only saving the life of this young man but, at the same time, saving the lives of everyone dependent upon him.

I have no money. So I cannot offer you a monetary reward. I can give you my blessings. May you, like this, continue saving precious lives of hapless people like Bhuvneshwar. Blessings do not have any financial value, but they do have intrinsic value. Blessings do work and work they will in your case as well. A lot of thanks once again. If you can spare some time, please honour us to have a cup of tea with us at our residence. You are a source of inspiration. Let the younger generation benefit from you.

With warmest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Sumit Sinha,
Neuro Surgeon,
Trauma Centre, AIIMS,
NEW DELHI.

✓ Copy forwarded to Dr. M.C. Mishra, Chief of the Trauma Centre, AIIMS, New Delhi with lot of thanks. My own personal belief is: If the Head is right, the other limbs work perfectly. You being the Chief (of the Neurology Deptt.) being kind, nice and understanding, the other limbs (Neurologists) have been doing excellently well. Thank you, Sir.
